Bartholomew's Gift

Written by
Diane Dignan

Illustrated by
Wendy Edelson

This award winning, inspiring picture book is a treasure for all ages. Bartholomew is born with a gift that his loved ones do not possess or understand. As a young child he discovers his ability to see and hear angels! Misunderstood, he denies his experiences until the gift disappears forever. Or does it? This story and the angel's message, shared in song, remind all of us that we are 'cherished in God's eyes.' Beautiful, moving illustrations deemed this book a 2010 Moonbeam Children's Book Awards gold medal winner. This hardcover gift book includes a CD narration of the story. For more information visit www.storieswithmorals.net.
